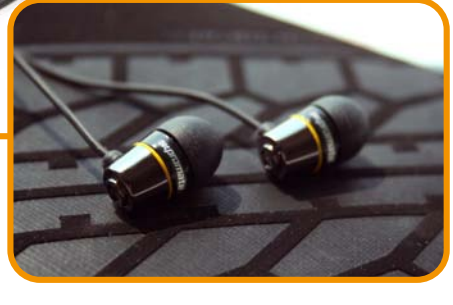
earmate.uni2

Universal Stereo Earphones for iPod, iPhone, and iPad 2



Music | Stereo Amplified | Enhanced Sound | 3.5 mm Audio Jack

earmate.uni2 is a compact and practical set of universal stereo earphones, designed to let you listen to your favourite music as it was meant to be heard. Ideally suited to the iPad, iPod or iPhone, earMate.uni2 works with any audio device that houses a 3.5mm audio jack input, including most MP3 and MP4 players.

earMate.uni2 guarantees a pleasurable and comfortable listening experience. This is due to three sizes of interchangeable silicone ear buds to help you find the perfect fit, but also to cut out annoying background noise. These earphones have an extended frequency response so that you can listen to any musical genre with sublime tonal subtlety; from garage rock to classical overtures.

What's more is that earMate.uni2 comes in a choice of red, black or white to match your audio device, offering a perfectly delicate balance of practicality, comfort and style.

- Dynamic in-ear design
- Ultra small earphones
- Wide frequency response
- Complete noise reduction
- Soft silicone ear pieces (S/M/L) for comfortable & secure fit
- 3.5mm audio jack works with all compatible MP3/MP4 and CD players
